

Ewing High School

$20 for 20

Capital Campaign

Since 1994, The Ewing Public Education Foundation has awarded thousands of dollars of grants to Ewing Educators for innovative programming that directly benefits our community's greatest asset, the children in our community. Supporting programs and experiences for our students in

Science, Math, Technology, Music, the Arts and civic programs has been our hallmark. Your support helps to fund these programs without the use of taxpayer dollars. More information about EPEF and our grants can be found on our website at www.EPEF.org

Be a Giver! Support the $20 for 20 Capital Campaign. Your contribution helps to support grants like these provided to Ewing High School teachers:

Media Center: Grades 9-12 Graphic Novels; Ewing High School E3: EHS Fitness Center Renovation; Taking It To the Street: Urban Literature for the Young Adult Reader; Italian Language and Cultural Competition 2013; Using E-Book Resources to Supplement the District's Media Center; Creating More Interactive Classrooms at Ewing High School; Utilizing the H.W. Wilson Image Gallery Databases in the Humanities Curriculum. In addition, EPEF also provides scholarships annually for graduating seniors and has worked with major corporate partners to provide additional support and resources for programs throughout Ewing Public Schools

Please make checks payable to EPEF and mail to: Ewing Public Education Foundation, PO Box 7033, Ewing NJ 08628. You can also contribute online at www.epef.org.

Thank you for your support!
