Genre and Subgenre Book Covers

Objective: Students will create two illustrated book covers. Each book cover should feature a different subgenre. One must be a real book and one imaginary with you as the author, but each must include the following:

Requirements:
1. The genre and subgenre at the top of the book cover
2. The title of the book
3. A full color or neatly sketched picture showing details that reveal the subgenre.
4. An explanation of how the story fits into the subgenre.

Subgenres to use for this project (choose two): historical fiction, science fiction, realistic fiction, fantasy, biography, autobiography, fairytale, fable, legend, tall tale, persuasive or informational writing

Example:

1. Genre and subgenre
   - Genre: Folklore
   - Subgenre: Fable

2. Title
   - The Tortoise and the Hare

3. Full color (or carefully sketched) illustration
   - "The Tortoise and the Hare" is a fable. I know this because it is a very short story with talking animals. Also, the moral or lesson of the story is clearly stated at the end.

Knowledge: Is the information on your book covers accurate? Do you understand subgenres?

Requirements: Did you complete everything that was required?

Quality: Do your book covers look presentable? Did you color or neatly sketch your drawings?

Conventions (spelling, punctuation, grammar)